Image. Your company's image and work environment are important to your customers, clients and employees. Your interior space is a reflection of your success. Framed artwork, awards, mirrors, and more provide the finishing touches to an office interior. It's one of the most affordable ways to enhance your company's image and create a productive work environment.

Price. Northwest Framing is the largest custom framing retail company in the Pacific Northwest. Our family of stores includes Beard's Framing, Frame Central and Museum Quality Framing. With nearly 50 stores, we use our volume buying power to negotiate lower costs from our suppliers allowing us to offer you better prices than you'll find anywhere else. Plus, our enormous local manufacturing facility means greater stock on hand and faster turn around times for you. No job is too large and the possibilities are endless.

Experienced Partners. We offer so much more than just framing. You'll benefit from the great relationships we've cultivated with artists and vendors to provide you with the most choices in every price range.

Unbeatable Selection. We're pleased to offer you the largest selection of frame mouldings and mats in the Northwest. You'll find a large array of choices in every price range. From simple mouldings to museum-quality, gold-leaf closed corner frames, there is truly something for every style and budget. We've also worked with artists locally and worldwide to offer you the best selection of prints, limited editions and original artwork. With more than 150,000 images to choose from, we can help you find just the right thing.

Frame Anything. We can frame anything for you. Whether it's simple maps and photographs or a company keepsake or award, we can and have framed it all.

Focus. NWF Commercial specializes in working with Architecture Firms, Interior Planners and Designers, Project Managers, and directly with businesses who require art, framing and unique framing solutions. We currently provide ongoing framing services for a wide range of clients in Health Care, Law, Technology, Hotels and Restaurants, Professional Sports, Financial Services and Residential Developers.

Understanding your needs. With over 30 years of experience serving the unique needs of our commercial clients, we can help your company with comprehensive solutions, from art selection to framing design to installation. Our industry experience and resources make it easy to create custom solutions within your budget.

Umpqua Bank offers people across Oregon a full range of smart personal and business banking solutions. A critical element of their service is to provide attractive and functional branch offices. The challenge was to create an interior strategy that could be replicated in every branch to maintain a consistent corporate image while still reflecting the local neighborhoods.

Northwest Framing Commercial (NWFC) has worked in close partnership with Umpqua Bank to translate ideas into framing solutions for all current and future locations. Recognizing the importance of its local business clients, Umpqua wanted something to celebrate their clients' accomplishments. The result was a Hero Wall that makes use of a stretched canvas that tells the story in both text and images. Also utilized are numerous framed black and white historical images and colorful canvases that help present a consistent new vs. historical balance for the look and feel of any branch.

Our partnership goes beyond simply fulfilling a single order. At NWFC, we strive to fully understand both immediate and long-term goals so that our customers can focus on other critical areas. We continue to work with Umpqua Bank to provide support for not only new branch designs and development, but also for maintaining and upgrading existing locations.

Ankrom Moisan Associated Architects (AMAA), is one of the nation's leading architectural planning and design firms, offering clients an enthusiastic approach to creating unique interior spaces. The constant challenge is to work within a client's budget without compromising design. Their innovative team of interior planners has developed a partnership with Northwest Framing Commercial (NWFC) to maximize their vision while staying mindful of client goals and budget.

Our ongoing design partnership includes sourcing art prints for tenant improvement projects as well as limited editions and original artwork for public spaces—for both new and existing facilities. This partnership also includes providing mirrors in bathrooms for new condo and residential tower projects. Collaborative work on The Vaux, a 145-unit, high-end development in northwest Portland, was one project that resulted in seamless integration from design stage through to installation.

Our industry experience and our relationships with key vendors help to provide value-added solutions to partners like AMAA. We make it easy for you to focus your attention on other critical areas of your project while we take care of the art and finished appearance. Trust us to deliver results that enhance both your vision and reputation.
